

NSC BRIEFING

DOCUMENT NO.

DECLASSIFIED

CLASS. CHANGED TO: TS S C

NEXT REVIEW DATE:

AUTH: HS 70-2

DATE: 1-16-80

REVIEWER: 3 HAITI

19 June 1957

QUIET

- I. On 14 June Haiti acquired its seventh government in six months when Chief-of-Staff General Antoine Kebreau ousted self-proclaimed Provisional President Daniel Fignolé--now in exile in New York.
 - A. New gov't is a 3-man junta headed by Kebreau, with all-officer cabinet.
- II. Fignolé's street mobs slow to react--took to streets on nights of 15-16 June.
 - A. In bloody street fighting, army stamped out rioting, jailed many leaders.
- III. New gov't may have better chance than its six predecessors,
 - A. Army is taking strong hand against all opposition.
 - B. Junta and cabinet apparently favoring presidential candidate Duvalier.
 1. Arresting leaders of groups supporting the other two main presidential aspirants--Déjoie and Jumelle.
 - C. Gov't contains both blacks and mulattoes and represents the three main regions (racial antagonism and regionalism are additional factors in present mess).
 - D. Fignolé forces weakened by loss of leaders; probably can't bring off threatened general strike, but may cause more riots.
 - E. Most army officers appear to support Kebreau.
 1. Fignolé adherents in enlisted corps kept in line by officers who control the arms and ammunition.
 2. Former Chief-of-Staff Cantave, main divisive influence, also exiled.
- IV. Kebreau will not have clear sailing.
 - A. More politicking for presidency most immediate threat.
 - B. Haitian economy in sad shape, with gov't almost bankrupt.